Whispering Pines – Johnny Horton

D G D
The snowflakes fall, it's winter's call, and time just seems to fly
G D A D
Is it the loneliness in me That makes me wanta cry
G D
My heart is sad like a mourning dove that's lost it's will to fly.
G D A D
Hear the cooin' of his lonely heart, through the stillness of the night.

A G D
Whisperin' Pines, Whisperin' Pines, tell me is it so.
A G D
Whisperin' Pines, Whisperin' Pines, you're the one who knows.
A G D
My darlin's gone, oh, she's gone, And I need your sympathy.
G D A D
Whisperin' Pines send my baby back to me.

D G D
See that squirrel up in the tree, his mate there on the ground.
G D A D
Hear their barking call of love from the happiness they've found
G D
Is my love still my love? Oh, this I've gotta know.
G D A D
Send a message by the wind, because I love her so.
