

El Paso

Marty Robbins

G ♩ = 170 Am

Out in the west Tex - as town of El Pa - so
Black er than night were the eyes of Fe - lin - a,
5 I fell in love with a Mex - i - can girl.
Wick - ed and ev - il while cast - ing a spell.
10 Night - time ould find me in Ro - sie's can - ti - na.
My love was deep for this Mex - i - can maid - en
14 Mu - sic would play and Fe - li - na would whirl. (Unfinished) —
I was in love, but in vain I could tell. (proceed) —
19 One night a wild young cow - boy rode in.. wild as the west Tex - as wind. —
26 Dash - ing and da - ring a drink he was sha - ring with 33 wic - ked Fe - li - na the girl that I loved. — So in an - ger I
40 chal - lenged his right for the love of this maid - en, Down went his hand for the 46 gun that he wore. — chal - lenge was an - swered in less than a
51 heart - beat; The hand - some young stran - ger lay dead on the floor. —