

Cousin Mary

Cousin Mary was a lady. She could really hold her own
She was fighting for her family. She was fighting for her home
Then there's the time she lost her husband we were fighting with our might
She'll be leaving in the morning. Won't you please say goodnight

All the money in the world couldn't tie old Mary down
You can believe her when she tells you. She's had her time around
There could be knights and kings in armor. Waiting for to fight
She'll be leaving in the morning. Won't you please say goodnight

She'll be leaving in the morning Won't you please say goodnight
Oh-oh-oh lovely lady Oh-oh-oh lovely lady
She'll be leaving in the morning And she's won her last fight
