G D
Sitting at a tiny table in a ritzy restaurant

She was staring at her coffee cup

G
He was trying to keep his courage up by applying booze

G D
Talk was small when they talked at all, they both knew what they wanted

There was no need to talk about it,

G
They were old enough to scope it out and keep it loose

B7 Em C
She said, you don't look like my type, but I guess you'll do

When they left the bar, they got in his car and they drove away

He drove to the Family Inn

G
She didn't even have to pretend, she didn't know what for

G D
Then he went to the desk and made his request while she waited outside

And he came back with the key

G
She said, give it to me and I'll unlock the door

B7 Em C
She kept saying, I've never really done this kind of thing before, have you
