Rain dripping off the brim of my hat. Sure is cold today

C F G C
Here I am walking down sixty-six. I Wish she hadn't done me that way

C F G C
Sleeping under a table at a road side park, a man could wake up dead

C F G C
But it sure seems warmer than it did sleepin in our king size bed

C F G C
Is anybody goin to San Antone or Pheonix Arizona

C F G C
Anyplace is alright as long as I can forget I've ever known her

C F G C
Wind whipping down the neck of my shirt like I aint got nothing on

C F G C
But I'd rather fight the wind and rain than what I've been fighting at home

C F G C
Yonder comes a truck with the U.S. mail, people writing letters back home

C F G C
Tomorrow she'll probably want me back, but I'll still be just as gone
