

Lyin' Eyes - Eagles

City girls just seem to find out early
How to open doors with just a smile
A rich old man, and she won't have to worry;
She'll dress up all in lace and go in style

You can't hide your lyin' eyes and your smile is a thin disguise
I thought by now you'd realize there ain't no way to hide your lyin' eyes

Late at night a big old house gets lonely
I guess every form of refuge has its price.
And it breaks her heart to think her love is only
Given to a man with hands as cold as ice.

So she tells him she must go out for the evening
To comfort an old friend who's feelin' down
But he knows where she's goin' as she's leavin'
She is headed for the cheatin' side of town

She gets up and pours herself a strong one
And stares out at the stars up in the sky
Another night, it's gonna be a long one
She draws the shade and hangs her head to cry

My, oh my, you sure know how to arrange things
You set it up so well, so carefully
Ain't it funny how your new life didn't change things
You're still the same old girl you used to be
