

One More Last Chance – Vince Gill

G C G
She was standing at the front door when I came home last night,

A7 D
A good book in her left hand and a rollin' pin in the right.

G C G
She said you've come home for the last time with whiskey on your breath.

D G
If you don't listen to my preachin' boy I'm gonna have to beat you half to death.

G C G
Give me just a one more last chance before you say we're through

A D
I know I drive you crazy baby, it's the best that I can do

G C G
We're just some good ol' boys, a makin' noise I ain't a runnin' 'round on you

G D G
Give me just a one more last chance before you say we're through

G C G
First she hid my glasses 'cause she knows that I can't see

A D
She said you ain't goin' nowhere boy until you spend a little time with me

G C G
Then the boys called from the honky tonk said there's a party goin' on down here

D G
Well she might've took my car keys but she forgot about my old John Deere
